Dear Name,

On behalf of the International Electric Propulsion Conference Committee, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 35th International Electric Propulsion Conference, scheduled for October 8-12, 2017 in Atlanta, Georgia, USA. The IEPC is the premier venue for researchers, developers, managers, and students from around to world to meet and discuss the latest in the field of electric propulsion.

Regarding your travel to the United States, the IEPC shall not provide travel reimbursement, honoraria, nor any other type of remuneration for your stay in the U.S. The sole purpose of your travel to the United States is to attend the 35th International Electric Propulsion Conference and carry out any and all related business activities on behalf of your organization in the context of the conference.

The 2017 IEPC will attract more than 300 participants from the electric propulsion community, who will gather to make vital business connections via the technical talks, plenary lectures, and networking events. This conference is a vital way to meet and exchange dialogue with your industry counterparts from the U.S. and more than 25 other countries.

Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at mitchell.walker@ae.gatech.edu or 404-385-2757.

Sincerely,

Mitchell L. R. Walker
Professor, School of Aerospace Engineering
